

SEASONS END: Another five week camping season has come to a close, and these youngsters, now back to school, have happy memories to sustain them through the winter. The Camp Trustees are seeking a caretaker for the camp. Grange secretaries have applications and job description for the position. (Fern Patridge photo)